- VI. Ensuring that good corporate governance practices are adopted by the Company;
- VII. Being fully aware of the Anti-corruption Manual of the Company and any other instruments related to Compliance.

VIII - CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

13. The Chairman of the Board has the following basic duties:

- I. Presiding over the Shareholders Meetings and meetings of the Board of Directors and, in the case of absence or temporary impediment, these functions must be exercised by another Director chosen by the majority of the other Directors;

- II. Ensuring the good and effective performance of the body;
- III. Ensuring that the activities of the Board are compatible with the interests of the Company, of its shareholders and of its other stakeholders;
- IV. In the event of a tie vote on the resolutions of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board will have not only their own vote, but the deciding vote.

IX – EXECUTIVE SESSIONS

14. The Chairman of the Board must include in the annual calendar, or may include in the call notices for annual or extraordinary meetings, meetings or sessions for evaluating the management.

Paragraph 1: The call notice for the Board meeting that includes the session or sessions referred to in the head paragraph must cite such sessions and be addressed to all Directors, including those prevented from participating in the meeting.

Paragraph 2: The minutes of the sessions referred to in the head paragraph will be drawn up separately and filed as an integral part of the minutes of the Board meeting.

IX – VACANCY

15. In the event of a vacancy on the Board of Directors that does not result in it having the majority of its positions vacant, based on the number of permanent Directors resolved by the Shareholders Meeting, the other Directors may (i) appoint a substitute(s), who will remain in the office until the end of the term of the substituted member(s); or (ii) opt to leave the position(s) vacant, provided that the minimum number of members envisaged in the Bylaws of the Company is observed.

16. In the event of a vacancy on the Board of Directors that results in it having the majority of its positions vacant, based on the number of permanent Directors resolved by the Shareholders Meeting, the Board of Directors will call a Shareholders Meeting to elect substitute(s), who will remain in the office until the end of the term of the substituted member(s).

X – RULES APPLICABLE TO THE MEETINGS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

17. The Board of Directors will meet whenever called by its Chairman. The Board meetings may be held, exceptionally, by conference call, videoconference or any other means of communication that provides unequivocal evidence of the vote.

18. The call notice for meetings must be made in writing, preferably at least three (3) business days in advance, by letter, telegram, fax, e-mail or any means that allows for substantiating the receipt of the call notice by the recipient, and must include the agenda and be accompanied by the pertinent documentation. Irrespective of the call notice formalities, any meeting attended by all members of the Board will be deemed regular.

19. At the Board of Directors meetings, absentee votes in writing and votes cast by electronic mail or any other means of communication will be permitted, with all members who voted as such considered present at the meeting;

20. The resolutions of the Board of Directors always will be taken by a majority vote of the Directors attending the meeting.

21. The Board preferably will hold at least six (6) annual meetings, on the second Tuesday of the months of February, May, August and November of each fiscal year, with the other meetings held on dates to be defined by the Chairman of the Board.

22. The meetings of the Board will be held preferably at the Company's registered office. In the event of a justified urgency, the meetings may be held on the same day they are called, by conference call, videoconference, email or any other means of communication.

23. The Chairman of the Board will designate a Governance Secretary, who will be responsible for: (i) organizing the agenda of the matters to be discussed, based on requests by Directors and consultation with Executive Officers, and submitting it to the Chairman of the Board, for subsequent distribution; (ii) issuing the call notices for Board meetings, and informing the Directors and other participants of the place, date, time and agenda; (iii) submitting, at least three business days prior to each meeting, supporting information related to the matters to be discussed and voted on, so that each Director is properly informed and prepared to actively participate in the debates; (iv) acting as secretary of the meetings, preparing and drawing up minutes and other documents in the Company's records, collecting signatures of all attending Directors, and registering the attendance of other participants; and (v) filing the minutes and resolutions adopted by the Board with the competent agencies and having them published in the state or federal register and in a high-circulation newspaper, as the case may be.

24. The Board will meet annually with the Audit Board to discuss matters of common interest. The Chairman of the Board will be responsible for providing the clarifications and information requested by the Audit Board while exercising its oversight function.

XI – RESOLUTION AND ADJOURNMENT OF MEETINGS

25. Except as otherwise provided in the Bylaws, the resolutions of the Board will be adopted by majority vote of the Directors attending the meetings; in the event of a tie, the Chairman of the Board will hold the deciding vote.

26. Sessions may be adjourned or ended when circumstances so require, at the request of any Director and with approval by the Chairman of the Board.

27. If a session is adjourned, the Chairman of the Board must set a date, time and place for the session to continue, and a new call notice will be waived, provided that no new item is included on the agenda.

28. The matters considered and resolutions taken at Board meetings will be documented in the minutes, which are registered in the Minutes Book of Board meetings and, whenever they contain resolutions that will produce effects on third parties, a summary of them will be disclosed, filed with the Registry of Commerce, and published. The Directors attending a meeting may resolve, due to the strategic and confidential nature of the matters involved, not to disclose certain minutes and only file them at the Company's registered office.

XII. MISCELLANEOUS

29. Omissions to this Charter, questions regarding interpretation and any amendments to its provisions will be decided by a meeting of the Board, as envisaged in the Bylaws.

30. This Charter will come into force on the date of its approval by the Board and will be filed at the Company's registered office.
